JE Brown Electric Inc. is a family-owned and Beech Grove-based business that services all of Indiana. The company is licensed, bonded and insured for 24-hour emergency electrical needs. It has more than 55 years of expertise and provides free and competitive estimates. Employees are tested and certified, and CEO Eric Brown holds a master electrician license. Eric Brown also has taught apprentice and journeyman classes at Indiana Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 481. Customers can depend on JE Brown Electric and its professionals, he said.

Brown added that the company offers a virtually unlimited list of capabilities to solve your problems and take care of your everyday electrical needs: commercial, residential, generator back-up systems, computer cabling, grounding, bucket truck work with a 55-foot reach, lifting and setting poles and snow removal.

"We pride ourselves in the work we do," they said. "We work on your structure as we would our own home."
